

OMEGAWISE™ Algae Oil Powder

OMEGAWISE™ Algae Oil Powder is a versatile, sustainable plant-based source of Omega-3 fatty acid, with a minimum DHA content of 17%. Derived from microalgae Schizochytrium, it serves as an excellent vegan alternative to traditional fish oil. This innovative product utilizes patented multi-layered microencapsulation technology, which protects the delicate algae oil from external influences and efficiently conceals its inherent marine aroma.

Benefits:

- Rich in Omega-3 and DHA supporting memory, brain health, blood circulation, and vision
- Sustainable and pure source of DHA-containing microalgae without artificial additives
- Odorless and neutral flavor for optimum palatability and extensive formula applications
- Patented microencapsulation technology ensures powder quality and stability, extending shelf life by 150%

Applications:

- Capsules, tablets & gummies
- Meal replacements
- Functional foods
- Protein shakes
- Nutrition bars
- Cookies
- Yogurts
- Powders
